N.B. the term 'course' shall be taken to mean any activity, session or event arranged by Original Wild.

Original Wild takes every reasonable precaution to ensure your safety. However, participants must acknowledge that they are engaging in activities with inherent risk.

Our team reserve the right to remove participants from activities where their behaviour is unacceptable and causing a risk to themselves and or others.

If any member of your group is likely to require oversized or very small equipment or has any special requirements please give us a call prior to your course taking place.

Correct clothing and footwear must be worn as per the kit list. We reserve the right to remove participants from the group if they do not have the correct kit. This is for your safety and comfort. Kit required is listed on each activity page on our website.

Any medical conditions or disabilities must be stated on your Medical & Risk Declaration form which will be provided to you. Consult your doctor if you are unsure about any aspect of your fitness. Please inform us of any medication being taken, and let us know if a child needs to take prescribed drugs whilst under our supervision.

Occasionally we take photographs and videos of activities for training and promotional purposes. Please advise your instructor if you prefer not to be in any photos.

Original Wild has specialist public and products liability insurance of £5 million, as well as employer's liability of £10 million. We do not accept responsibility for personal belongings or additional costs incurred due to sickness, weather, strikes or any other causes. Personal accident insurance is not included.
